DANIELSON

Prospects for a wet Fourth for some seemed to have been spoiled, through a raid of state police at the home of Edward Blaisdell, Westfield avenue, Saturday. It was an evening raid and netted 80 gallons of mash and a copper boiler.

Officers Field, Williams and Kelly participated in the raid, which was the result of complaints received by the state police department. An amusing circumstance of the affair was the coming of cars, which swung into the Blaisdell yard, with lights out, as the raid was under way, and quickly shot out without the occupants asking any questions as soon as the tip reached them that state officers were about. One safe bet is that the drivers of those cars were not looking for the Chautauque tent!

The latest mass connection of raisins, oranges, grape, liquid and other things—looks as if it might develop into something with a kick, if given proper treatment.

Funeral services for Mrs. Julia Barile, wife of Kent A. Barile, were conducted Saturday afternoon at 1:30 at the Barile home on Broad street. Rev. A. E. Gallup of the Pentecostal church, pastor of the Baptist church, were the officiating clergymen. Burial was in Westfield cemetery. The bearers were Frank W. Praxton, E. H. Hammett, Raymond Allen and George B. Gould. A. P. Wood was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Whether or not Danielson will have a series of Chautauque entertainments next year has not been determined up to Sunday afternoon. The deficit this year, according to reports Sunday, was between $400 and $500, which is not at all encouraging to the organizers.

A Sunday program that proved of interest to many was a feature of this year's series of entertainments in Danielson. Concerts by the Little Boston Symphony were featured on Saturday afternoon, afternoon and evening. This orchestra included a soprano, also French musicians who are instrumentalists of the highest order. The program was wholly pleasing to the subscribers for the series of entertainments. Today (Monday) the Clarke concert company and Dr. Frank Bohn, lecturer, will furnish the program.

Mrs. Edith Elvira Nichols, wife of Walter K. Nichols, died early Sunday morning at her home in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Nichols was born in Putnam April 11, 1875, a daughter of Frank and Jeanette Atwood. She was married to Mr. Nichols in Providence, April 16, 1892. Mrs. Nichols leaves her husband, her mother and two sons, Judge Oscar F. Atwood and Herman F. Atwood.

Today (Monday) brings what in the old days was a great day for millions of Americans—the night before the glorious Fourth. In this day of modernism and trivialities and sundry other frothy things it seems to have lost much of its significance. However, the spirit of '76 is not entirely extinct and many will see in tonight's celebration and that of the Fourth something more than a mere opportunity for practically unlimited license to make noise and at turn loose activities that would not be well resolved on any other day of the year. And it matters little that some of the most enthusiastic celebrators are of foreign birth and will remain unimpaired citizens. If the world was shown any one thing conclusively it was that one never can be certain in an emergency involving the safety of the nation who is going to be the most patriotic, especially if it comes to risking one's life on the firing line. So tonight and tomorrow this fact may come in for some consideration, especially if the noise gets a bit irksome or nerve-racking.

While there has been no announcement of the fact, it seems likely that an opportunity will be certain in the coming week of the Aldrich manufacturing company at Moosup to return to their work this week. There are what seem to be well founded rumors that the plant will open its doors that all who wish to work may return to their employment—under the conditions in force when they left.

If this opportunity is afforded, those who are among the 700 forced out of work by the strike will have their chance of going back to regular employment without experiencing the strain of a long drawn out strike.

Strike leaders asserted at the week end that the strikers were strongly entrenched and that they are just beginning their fight for the recognition of their union at Moosup. They resent the Alexander George Zachary Romanosque a few years ago was working in the big cotton mills of North Grosvenordale. Today he is proprietor of a cafe at Revere Beach, Mass. While there is nothing of special note in that fact, that he is the husband of Beulah Amalia Walton, sister of David H. Walton, wealthy chain lunchroom proprietor, lends interest to the tale of the Greek who left his home in the mill village to seek his fortune in the city. Being the nearest city and the largest in New England, George chose it as the location of his efforts. Now he has married a wealthy woman of the Bay State. The former Miss Walton, who is 47, and Romanosque, who is 26, were married Thursday night by Rev. Charles Russell Peck of St. Paul's Cathedral, Marlboro street, Boston.

According to the principals of the affair it was a case of love at first sight. They met in their romance in spite of the opposition of the bride's brother, who, it is understood, bestowed his blessing when he learned of the marriage having been performed. The new bridegroom is on his way north on a trip but will devote their time to conducting the summer restaurant at the beach. It was while he was a busy boy in the Romanosque and his bride, the sister of the boss, met. The Romanosques plan to open a restaurant near Harvard square, Cambridge, and cater to the trade of college students. Romanosque is known to many of the student body of the college who were his patrons at the dining hall conducted in Oxford Hall, Cambridge. When Romanosque left the Walton company and embarked in business for himself he went to live in Cambridge.

There have been no developments in the case concerning the attempt to kidnap Dr. H. H. Sharpe, son of Dr. H. H. Sharpe of this city in which the young man's wife took the leading role. As far as can be learned the automobile carrying Dr. Sharpe and his wife was seen in the city of Providence, R. I. Dr. Sharpe expressed this fact as his belief. For if it returned to the Rhode Island capital he felt sure that either he or the police would have heard of it. The salient feature of the case seems to be that the wife accuses her husband's father of trying to keep his son away from her, while Dr. Sharpe accuses the wife of trying to keep his son in Providence against the son's will. The doctor says of the woman shows up at his home in Putnam again, he will immediately call the police. He tells of telephone calls late at night by parties trying to get information as to the status of the case in Putnam. While some of these calls have explained that they represented city newspapers, Dr. Sharpe thinks that it is the woman trying to find out what the feeling is over the recent attack on her son to Rhode Island by force. The case has caused a stir in Putnam, where the son and father are well known. Meanwhile the young man is attending to his duties as state clerk.

The first out-of-door carnival of Putnam, which is to be held at the Putnam Hotel, has been made ready and many booths, a dancing platform and stage have been erected. In order that the weather man can not statement published in this paper that even a single person now out of work on account of the strike is willing to return. As to this time, it is said that a Providence paper of Saturday, reviewing strike conditions in the Pawtucket valley, set forth that heads of families in some of the Rhode Island villages of the valley have voted in favor of returning to work, after being on strike for many weeks, and one reason given for this action is that financial support received each week from Moosup is not likely to be continued hereafter, now that Moosup has a strike of its own.

Mills in Killingly will close tonight (Monday) for the holiday period. Business will be generally suspended in Danielson on the holiday.

Thomas Head and members of his family from Winsted will spend the holiday season with Michael Head and family of Academy street.

Herman Coulter is at Pleasure beach for the holiday period.

Danielson members of Putnam lodge of Elks have arranged to take a band to Putnam with them Friday evening of this week when they go to Putnam for Danielson night, which also will be Moosup night and Mardi Gras night and a night for putting on a real party, when all will be welcome, whether Elks or not.

play any tricks on the untold fraternity lodge has taken out insurance against rainy weather. It is hoped that the weather may be favorably, however, and that the latter company will not be called upon to make good for any evening. There will be a big street parade about the city, ending at the brightly lighted mile on a long street. From the moment the marchers reach the grounds there will be something done every minute of the six days of July. The parade will be present, Southbridge night, when the brothers from the Bay State are going to cross the line in two hundred automobiles. On the Fourth there will be a big display of fireworks in the evening. Windham county is looking forward to a solid week of amusement as guests of the B. P. O. E.

Every one likes the music of the band. It was the way the Putnam Chamber of Commerce can be carried out, there will be free band concerts in this city during the summer months commencing with the first of July. To have these weekly concerts in Union square if the financial support of the plan can be arranged.

W. S. Johnson, a retired shoe manufacturer of Putnam, is on his way north from Tampa, Florida, where he spent the winter months. In a news item regarding Mr. Johnson's departure from the Putnam State a Tampa agent says: "W. S. Johnson, of Bayshore Boulevard, leaves in a few days for Putnam, Conn. Mr. Johnson is a large property owner in Tampa and is a great booster and a great asset to the city. He is now in Connecticut for the purpose of telling his numerous friends in that state about the phenomenal advantage offered by this city and section, which is a place of interest to them to turn to the Land of Flowers in the car autumn."

Everett E. Brown, of Black Hill, formerly of Pomfret, membership campaign representative of the Windham County Farmers' association, is making splendid progress in the towns that he has canvassed. The greater part of this canvassing has been done in the towns of Thompson, Putnam, Killingly, Plainfield, Scotland and Windham. The members and officers in the different towns are co-operating with him and many new members are being recruited in the organization. Counting Frank L. Davis, has returned from attending a conference of County Agents and extension specialists at the Massachusetts Agricultural college, Amesbury.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Graydon Sharpe were greater visitors Saturday.

All the Putnam mills closed Saturday noon and will not open again till Wednesday morning.

Members of the Ladies' Social Circle of the Second Congregational church have been discontinued until fall. Miss Mary Wheaton, superintendent of Sunday school of the Second Congregational church, Miss Charlotte Danforth of the Primary department and Mrs. C. D. Arnold, of the Sunday school committee, who have been attending the Summer School Religious Education at New London during the past week returned to Putnam Saturday afternoon. William Griffin of New York City, writing relatives on Pomfret street over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Harold Gilpatrick, Richard Gilpatrick, William Gilpatrick and Miss Edna Hall left Putnam Saturday by automobile for Juniper Point, Me. The Sunday school picnic of the Methodist church will be held the Fourth of July, at Green's Grove, Quaker.

JEWETT CITY

It appears that the legitimate authorized strike soldiers who are visiting Jewett City are having a little something put over on them, relative to which Thomas E. Harop, chairman of strike committee, of Arctic, R. I., has not been furnished accurate and reliable information. Two strange men were held up two Jewett City men at 10:30 a. m. Thursday on East Main street. It was raining hard, the two Jewett City men were watching a car when it was stopped. The strangers inquired the way to the textile company's plant, and asked if that was the place where the printers had been out recently. They were informed that it was, and today it was asked for a few cents, they said, "to help hold out." Not receiving same, they cursed everything in general, and the chances of getting anything out of the town in particular. The car, considered in connection with Mr. Harop's letter to the editor in Friday's Bulletin, confirm Jewett City people in the belief, that possibly, ruffians are being gotten away with in this town. As suggested in the Jewett City Bulletin and Danielson news in Friday's Bulletin. It is believed here that such information may put Mr. Harop wise, and disabuse his town in particular. The right of way of the New Haven railroad passes through the upper pond, a narrow strip of land nearly a half mile long and hardly 30 feet wide. Some day when this strip is lined with fishermen, the railroad may run one of its five ballast sprinklers over the line loaded with road oil, then it would be a case of tar or turtles in the railroad's present activities in connection with its safety policies in this neck of land is under surveillance.

Chautauque with its splendid musical programs and wonderful addresses by such national lecturers as Dr. Bohn, Dr. Herbert, Walfrid Lindstrom and Supt. Francis Russell will be given by the Putnam. Saturday and Sunday nights fine audiences filled the great tent, where something pleasing, something for everybody to enjoy was given by the talented artists.

Rev. E. E. Seates occupied his pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday, beginning his pastorate here. Rev. Myron D. Fuller, the retiring pastor, has occupied his new home in Lowell, Mass. It is his plan to give up taking regular pastorate, he has been obliged in accordance with his decision, to refuse two especially gratifying calls. Mr. Fuller will, however, supply to such extent as seems to him expedient.

July 1st the state protective law went out on black bass and the fishing season began on trout. Willow brooks and other streams equally productive of marvelous fish stories, will now take a much needed rest. Tadpole pond for bass has now come into its own again, and today if reports are true, all the little spots of clear water to be found here and there among the lily pads, have been engaged in advance. The question among the local fishing fraternity, as to how bass got to Tadpole pond, when none have been seen there since it was flooded 75 years ago is explained by Mr. Rondeau, who says that he put in a lot of small ones a few years ago. The right of way of the New Haven railroad passes through the upper pond, a narrow strip of land nearly a half mile long and hardly 30 feet wide. Some day when this strip is lined with fishermen, the railroad may run one of its five ballast sprinklers over the line loaded with road oil, then it would be a case of tar or turtles in the railroad's present activities in connection with its safety policies in this neck of land is under surveillance.

Antone Ponte, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Antone Ponte, went out to play about 5 o'clock Friday and did not return that evening. The family looked everywhere for the boy, but he did not appear. The boy was last seen in the morning hours of Saturday. The lad, it is thought, tumbled off the dock in the harbor, fell into deep water and was drowned. A fisherman, John Vincent, who noticed the body about noon, called the authorities and medical examiner Gray was summoned and gave permission for removal of the boy's body to his home. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery at 2 o'clock Sunday morning. Rev. J. E. O'Brien.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

Saturday's Market Dull. New York July 2.—Markets for stocks, bonds and commodities were the dullest in months. Transactions in all branches were not heavy, but by exceedingly narrow, reflecting the absence from the financial district of a majority of active operators in Saturday's market.

Transactions in stocks were around only a quarter of a million shares. Some liquidation, especially in oil issues, could be found, but the general list was more or less firm throughout the session. General Motors was the active feature of the late trading, with an advance to 14 7/8 on heavy transactions. Railroad shares continued to hold their gains of the earlier part of the week. Great Northern appearing especially strong at 77 1/4. There were no new developments in connection with the railroad strike during the course of the session, and as a consequence the trading in the rails was entirely professional. For that matter, there was little of any other kind of business in any of the active issues. The oil stocks remained unsettled, though for what reason the Street is still guessing. Copper stocks did better than at any time in the last several days.

touring car driven and owned by Norwich parties, with registration number 62-160, went to make the curve at the corner of Elm and Custer streets. The woman who was driving, failed to make the sharp curve, going up on the sidewalk between the stone wall and stone post, smashing the fender and front of the car. There were with the woman driving, a gentleman and two children. No one was hurt. The car was taken to a local garage for repairs and the parties were sent to Norwich in R. M. DeLagrange's car. This corner is on the main highway, and the people were going toward Westerly when the accident happened.

The Connecticut highway department Saturday placed a glass sign to the left of the curve on the Dr. Atwood property which stands on high ground. The glass sign is projected with wicker works over the red glass bearing danger signal for nights and the word "danger" is printed just above it for day drivers, warning them of the bad curve on the highway and also over one of the N. Y. N. H. & H. railroad crossings just beyond which leads from the state road to the borough of Stonington proper.

A dead mule passed through here Saturday en route from Miami, Fla., to Portland, Maine. He rode a bicycle on his trip and had a large sign attached on his back, bearing the words, "Dead Mule and his destination."

BROOKLYN NURSE RECOMMENDS THIS STOMACH REMEDY

Personal Experience Shows Benefits of Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules for Indigestion and Dyspepsia

"From personal experience I am satisfied that Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules are a splendid preparation, and I have no hesitancy in recommending them to others who are troubled with various stomach derangements. They have proven beneficial," writes Susie C. Clark, registered nurse of 55 Hicks street, Brooklyn, N. Y., to the Jaques Capsules Company, Inc., of Plattsburg, N. Y.

Hundreds of Letters

Nurse Clark's is but one of many hundreds of letters which have been sent to the Jaques' Capsules Company, commending the valuable discovery which is now being put up in convenient capsule form for the relief of indigestion, dyspepsia, and the disorders due to overeating or the eating of food which is difficult to digest.

Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules are not supposed to cure all diseases, but they are guaranteed to give satisfying relief for disorders of the stomach. They bring quick relief in mild and acute cases, and gradually relieve chronic and obstinate dyspepsia, indigestion and constipation.

Save Your Stomach

The welfare of your whole system is dependent upon the stomach. If your stomach functions properly, food is easily and thoroughly digested and quickly assimilated into the system, making rich red blood and renewing the body waste. If you suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, catarrh of the stomach, sour stomach, constipation, or other disorders or derangements of the stomach or digestive tract, your food is imperfectly digested and often decomposes in the stomach, poisoning the system. Gas forms, producing a full, heavy feeling, headache, nausea, belch, breath, heartburn, biliousness and many other ailments result. The undigested food causes loss of appetite and malnutrition. General debility frequently follows, and life is shortened. Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules aid in relieving these conditions, assist digestion and tone up the stomach. Save your stomach and you prolong your life.

Satisfaction Guaranteed
Physicians, nurses, dentists, ministers, business men and prominent men and women in all parts of the United States have been astonished at the marvelous relief they have experienced from stomach troubles of long standing after taking but a few of these capsules.

Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules are harmless. They contain no irritating or poisonous drugs, and are sure relief for indigestion, dyspepsia and constipation without fuss or bother. You simply take one or two capsules and swallow with water. They are sold under a strict guarantee to refund the money to anyone who is dissatisfied after giving them a trial.

On sale at Engler's Broadway Pharmacy, Norwich; Taftville Pharmacy, Taftville; Burroughs Drug Store, Danielson; Chas. R. Caray, Jewett City; or 50 cents by mail, prepaid from Jaques' Capsule Co., Plattsburg, N. Y.
